

READitLet Freedom Ring

"Starting July 1, Virginian concealed handgun permit holders will finally be able to taste the sweet nectar of freedom. I can only imagine the gut wrenching misery they've endured over the years not being able to walk into an alcohol-serving restaurant, nightclub, pizza parlor or bowling alley with their gun, but their long, painful struggle is finally over." Turn to page 7 to continue reading Chris Bopst's sound advice column.

14

JULY 1-7, 2010 BRICKWEEKLY.COM

SEEitART*SHOWING THIS MONTH

Frame Nation Opening Friday, July 9: "Pattern Recognition," abstract drawings and paintings by Richmond artist Dena Frostick. Opening reception Friday, July 9 from 5pm to 9pm. Frame Nation, 11 S. 15th St.

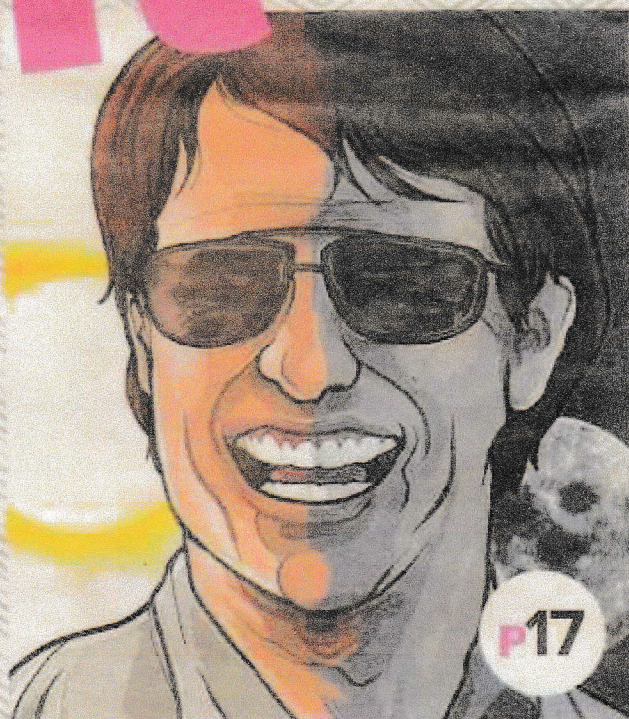

WHAT TO DO, EAT, READ, HEAR

P14

"Pattern Recognition" by
Dena Frostick • Frame Nation

SEEitFirst Fridays Artwalk

Around W. Broad St, between Belvidere & 4th streets, come and walk around to see the art works, hear the music, and experience culture of local Richmonders alike and out of town artists. Check the listings and more artwork on pg 14-15.

P17*SEEit*Knight and Day Movie Review

June Havens finds her everyday life tangled with that of a secret agent who has realized he isn't supposed to survive his latest mission. As their campaign to stay alive stretches across the globe, they soon learn that all they can count on is each other. Read Joe Dunn's review on page 17.