

A Space for Art

Artspace, a major presence in Richmond's gallery scene since 1988, held its annual members' show last August. Located at 6 East Broad Street, the non-profit association is also a forum for original work in poetry, prose, drama, dance, and music. To learn more about Artspace, and to find out about upcoming events, call 782-8672, or go online to www.artspacegallery.org

Below: Les Schaffer's favorite piece in the show was a Dana Frostick landscape.
