9WG Studios will host a public reception Friday from 5 to 8 p.m. for the opening of "Past-Present," a show of works by Richmond artist Dana Frostick. The mixed-media works combine drawing and painting.

"The interesting thing about her work is that she starts out using a Sharpie marker to come up with the form and design," said 9WG Studios production manager Libbie Crane. "Then she combines it with watercolor and acrylic paints to make her abstract patterns." According to Frostick's artist statement, "Each layer is influenced by the previous layer as the piece is built up to its conclusion."

All works in the Frostick exhibit, which runs through Aug. 31 at 9 W. Grace St., are for sale. Gallery hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday-Friday.

For details, call (804) 225-9510 or visit www.9wgstudios.com or www.danafrostick.com.

On Sept. 5, 9WG Studios will open a show by prominent Richmond mural artist Michael Broth.
